Ambassadors to Is

March 8, 2008

Shalom and Greetings from Jerusalem.

We arrived safely into Israel and are settled in a temporary apartment in Jerusalem. I have begun Biblical and Modern Hebrew courses. The LORD has given many opportunities to witness, distribute Bibles, New Testaments, and other literature. An Ethiopian Jew was delighted to hear that I could get him a complete Bible in his own language and asked for five of them for him and his friends. After witnessing to Jesse, a Muslim cab driver, he asked if he could have a Bible in Arabic. One Jewish money changer was so excited after reading a tract I gave him. The next time I saw him, he gladly received a New Testament, which he has been reading and studying.

During one of our last meetings in Australia, I had the privilege of preaching in Jerusalem Baptist Church. As I closed the message, a holocaust survivor called out from the audience that she wanted to be saved. The pastor and I worked with her for some time after the service and she asked CHRIST to save her soul. She also testified to an overwhelming change in her heart. Interestingly, the pastor prayed the day before that he would see a Jewish soul saved and that the LORD would do it soon. Praise GOD!

The LORD'S timing is entirely perfect. While I was speaking with one of the most influential Bible publishers in Israel, two very prominent Bible distributors for the Jewish people worldwide just happened to turn up. The Bible text issue was discussed and I was able to point out numerous corruptions in some of their modern Bibles. They were very grateful for the information and one of the leaders plans to check it against future printings. For those of you who are interested, there are two books by Dr. Jack Moorman. One book outlines the 8,000 Differences between the Critical Text and the Textus Receptus and in another book he lists 356 doctrinal passages that are affected.

We ask for you to be sensitive in any communications with us. For example, we prefer to use the word "ambassador" in place of the "m" word and refrain from using the word "evan..."

Please pray for the safe delivery of our first child, our paperwork to be processed efficiently, for us to adjust to the culture, fruit and souls to disciple, continual divine appointments, wisdom, and clear direction as to where to settle. May GOD bless all of you who are praying for us and giving sacrificially to this ministry. The LORD has been faithful to continually meet all our needs.
